

If you know what the golden ratio/mean/number is, you should know that one of nature's most perfect shapes is the spiral nautilus shell, that gets wider in the pattern of a golden spiral, and hence is related to both phi and the Fibonacci series. Beauty is said to be there.

There are some poems which have different shapes. They are called calligrams. Some of them have spiral shape. But let's learn what a calligram is:

[PDF]

Calligrams - Jimdo

u.jimdo.com/www30/o/.../0/calligrams?px... —

And now, let's get some information about the history of calligrams:

[PPT]

Calligrams - Primary Resources

www.primaryresources.co.uk/english/.../Calligrams.p...

